Two-column comparison

Original synthetic input. No measured data. Translation quality requires human review.

The signal was measured twice. The field was held at 2.5 mT during the comparison.

Left column: decreasing the grid interval does not prove every assumption.

The signal was measured twice. The field was held at 2.5 mT during the comparison.

Right column: a short source sentence may require a longer Chinese rendering. Inspect overflow independently of translation accuracy.